

Mid Penn Soccer Academy

Interested in becoming the best soccer player you can be?

The Mid Penn Soccer Academy exists to promote youth soccer in Central Pennsylvania throughout a range of age and experience; to assist in the development of not only member teams but also individual players in their technical, tactical, physical, and psychological development; to prepare players for success at their next level.

The Mid Penn Soccer Academy is designed to provide quality training to soccer players who are training to reach their best potential. Academy training is available all year around and premier teams will be formed to compete through out the year. The academy is open to all age groups and both girls and boys.
